

Hoping to save some extra money before the holidays?

Participate in a 3-week CH2M group as through the Stanford VET Behavioral Lab to help you save $100!

Monday, November 28th 2016:

You will fill out an online survey on the first day.

Monday, November 28th - Sunday, December 11th:

Afterwards, you will receive a daily message reminding you to track your savings over the duration of the program.

As a reward for helping us pilot this program, you will receive a $1 Amazon gift card for filling out the first study and a $1 Amazon gift card for filling out a mid-program check-in survey. If you complete the program, you will be entered in a lottery where 1 in 20 people will receive a $20 Amazon gift card.

In order to participate, you must be a Stanford student over the age of 18.

To sign up, go to small.com/giftcard or e-mail shirley@stanfordvet.edu
